

NORTH AMERICAN VOYAGEUR COUNCIL FALL GATHERING 2018

November 2-4 Information page

This year's Fall Gathering will be held at Badger Camp just outside of Prairie du Chien, WI!

You can "google map" directions and location for Badger Camp or simply go to their location web page: <http://www.badgercamp.org/location.php> for complete directions.

Arrival may be any time after noon on Thursday November 1th. You will need to bring your own bedding materials (blankets and such. Camping is available if desired. RVs (no hook-ups except for electrical) are also allowed. Reservations for the onsite indoor space will be on a first-come, first-served basis. Reservations for the entire weekend will be capped at 150. Information regarding local motels, should you so desire, can be obtained by contacting Michael Douglass.

Food related concerns should be directed to Michael Douglass, michael.douglass@centurylink.net

Deadline for registration is October 1.

A tentative listing of workshops is on the website.

Check out our website (<http://www.navoyageur.org/gathering18.htm>) for more information.

Remember to bring an item for the Silent Auction, if you are able. This could be anything from something you make to a great fur trade book to some other fur trade related object. All proceeds from the Silent Auction help support NAVC and its programs.

Hope to see you there!!

Limited size/Fee workshops—Check off, tear off, and include with your registration to preregister for these workshops. Please pay fees to presenters directly at the Gathering workshop. First come; first served.
